The team at MPA Financial Management was treated to two days in Dublin last month to celebrate reaching £250 million in assets under management (AUM). Director Phil McGovern anticipates the firm's AUM will exceed £300 million by the end of the year.

'The whole team has done a really good job,' McGovern says. 'They've all worked immensely hard, and the team we have now is the best we've ever had.'

3 LONDON Perfect Partners

New Model Adviser® Top 100 firm Partners Wealth Management has hired former Towry Guildford office boss Fiona Oliver (pictured below), who joins as partnerships director.

'Having an individual of Fiona's calibre reinforces our commitment to forging ever deeper relationships with our accountancy and private client legal partners,' says managing partner James Roberts.

Oliver chose Partners over several corporate offerings and says that she is looking forward to a 'hugely exciting' future at the firm.

1 MANCHESTER Rose recruited

Sedulo Wealth Management has hired chartered financial planner Gareth Rose (pictured right) from Rowanmoor Consultancy. Rose, a fellow of the Personal Finance Society, says the decision was easy because of Sedulo's culture, commitment to the local business community, and future plans.

'The business is going places, so when the offer was made it was impossible to turn down,' he says.

'Gareth has a truly client-focused approach, which means he is a perfect fit for the Sedulo group,' says managing director Paul Lindfield.

4 BOURNEMOUTH Back of the net

Bournemouth-based Strategic Solutions Financial Services has renewed its sponsorship of AFC Bournemouth's youth academy for the 2016/17 season. The firm will be the main kit sponsor for the under-16 and under-18 squads.

The deal will also see Strategic Solutions delivering finance workshops for academy players and their parents.
